

Review

Jesus calls us to be part of the church community. He sends the Holy Spirit to build the Church through us. By praying and celebrating the sacraments, we are one body before God.

Prayer

Jesus, Lord, teach me what it means to be a member of the Body of Christ. Teach me to appreciate all the help you give me on my faith journey.

Faith Summary

Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to help the disciples carry out his mission. The Holy Spirit brings life and strength to the Church. Jesus calls us to be part of the church community.

Peter and the Apostles were the first leaders of the Church. Today the pope, bishops, and pastors are our leaders.

Jesus gives us the sacraments to help us worship God. In the celebration of the sacraments, Jesus is present to us through the grace of the Holy Spirit.

The Church is united before God in the Communion of Saints.

Mary, the mother of Jesus and mother of the Church, is our model of a saint. We pray the Rosary to remember the lives of Mary and Jesus.

My Response

Think about the many gifts God has given you. Write a sentence about how you will use one of these gifts to help others.

The Spirit Lights Our Way

The tongues of fire on the candles below remind us of the Holy Spirit coming to Jesus' followers. When we let the Holy Spirit guide us, we receive the Fruits of the Holy Spirit.

Under five of the candles below are letter clues to the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. Fill in the blanks to complete the words. Then think about the many gifts God has given you. Perhaps you are good at listening or at fixing things. Inside the largest candle, write one gift you feel is yours to share.
